WINE BAR & BISTRO

HUNGRY?

YOU CAME TO THE RIGHT PLACE.

The 30 second tour...

Just over 13 years ago Mark Pope started this company at his kitchen table with a yellow pad and a dream. Mr. Pope spent the next few years building relationships with the finest wineries and winemakers in the valley in order to put together what today is considered one of the most prolific wine catalogs in the business.

About four years ago we opened the Bounty Hunter Wine Bar and Bistro at this historic location to support our catalog and turn people on to great wine and food. We offer over 400 wines on the shelf to take home, ship or drink here and we keep 40 wines available by the glass. So enjoy a glass of wine with a bite to eat and let us take care of you.

Semorile Building C. 1888

The Semorile family came to Napa in 1869 and started their grocery business just east of this site. Early in 1889, they established a new store in this building, remaining until their retirement in 1924. The former upstairs residence now houses the Bounty Hunter offices.

Built by Batolomeo Semorile and designed by Napa architect Luther M. Turton, the Semorile building is an example of Victorian commercial architecture. It is one of Downtown Napa's oldest structures and is in the National Registry of Historic Landmark Buildings.
